

A white and a red for Christmas 2017

Louis Latour

Pouilly-Vinzelles "En Paradis" 2015

90

A beautiful white Burgundy that's perfect for Christmas from Louis Latour. The vines are grown on limestone and clay soils and are 30 years old on average, and one would swear this has seen a touch of oak given the creamy, almond and lightly buttery notes of the nose, but it has not. As well as that, there is ripe orchard fruit and a lovely sense of both richness and clarity. In the mouth the ripe, mouth-filling texture and sweetness is delicious, but that's because the core of mineral-flecked citrus acidity runs like a spine too, into a long, creamy finish.

Watch the video for details and food-matching ideas:
<https://wine-pages.com/tasting-articles/18122017-white-red-christmas-2017/>

