Description

Following several years of reflection the new Coteaux Bourguignons appellation was launched in November 2011.

This new appellation offers the freedom to explore and associate different Burgundian terroirs and grape varieties in Burgundy. The grapes used in the elaboration of Coteaux Bourguignons can be sourced from the entire Burgundy vineyard. Single varietal or blended, it allows our winemaker to reveal a rich aromatic range in the typical style of the Maison. Thanks to our bicentennial experience in the heart of Burgundy, Maison Louis Latour has the opportunity to express through this wine, his traditional but innovative vision of Burgundy wines.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Our Coteaux Bourguignons 2013 has a ruby color with grenat hues and a nose with cherry notes. On the palate, a great fullness. This wine reveals aromas of blackcurrant and a beautiful tannic structure.
- CELLARING POTENTIAL 3 years
- FOOD PAIRING This wine is extremely versatile and will accompany a wide variety of foods, for example grilled or braised red meats, grilled white meats, oily fish such as salmon and tuna, meat or tomato based pasta dishes, salads, cheese, cured meats and spicy foods such as Indian curries.
- SERVING TEMPERATURE 12 - 14°C
