Description

Found on the gently sloping, south facing hillside overlooking the picturesque village of Morgon, the most distinguished of the ten Cru villages of the Beaujolais, is the unique vineyard site of « Les Charmes ». It yields a wine in the traditional Cru Beaujolais style, with strength, structure and the ability to age well. Using traditional Beaujolais fermentation techniques, this wine has a fresh, fruity bouquet and a palate which displays a round, smooth, supple fruit character, exhibiting all the characteristics of the terroir specific to this unique « climat ». It is well-balanced with soft approachable tannins and a pleasant fruity finish.
