Description

Rully is the first village in the Côte Chalonnaise as you move south out of Côte-d'Or. The quality of its white wines lies in the conjunction of marl-limestone soils and a slightly higher altitude than in Côte de Beaune, ranging from 230 to 300 meters. The Chardonnay combines exquisite freshness with beautiful generosity.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Our Rully 2013 has a pale yellow colour, very bright. The nose is complex and generous. It reveals acacia honey, quince and mirabelle plum notes. On the palate, a lot of roundness and a wonderful length with almond paste and vanilla aromas. A nice mineral finish.
