Description

The Grand Cru vineyard of Bâtard-Montrachet lies between the picturesque villages of Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet, home to the world's greatest white wines. Only a small country lane separates this 11.86 hectare vineyard from the great Montrachet itself. Its gentle easterly-facing slope is made up of a deep, rich, gravelly soil which has a limestone base, world renowned for the production of high quality Chardonnay.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Superb golden color. The taster will be seduced by the intense nose of mint, anise and fruits. Fresh almond aromas complete the nose. Bâtard-Montrachet 2007 is full and fresh with beautiful intensity. The flavors, still discreet, of almonds and vanilla will charm the taster. A very powerful wine that lingers a long time on the palate. Without contest an exceptional wine. Tasted June 10th, 2009.
- FOOD PAIRING Pan-fried sea scallops - saffroned monkfish - lobster thermidor.
- SERVING TEMPERATURE 12-14°
