Description

Chassagne-Montrachet is located to the south of Puligny-Montrachet in the Côte de Beaune and is one of Burgundy's greatest white wine appellations. This Premier Cru wine has been selected from the best parcels of land where the grapes are exposed to the maximum amount of sunshine which ensures optimum ripeness before the harvest. The word Chassagne comes from either the Latin cassanea which means an oak wood or cassanus which means oak. Until the late 19th Century the main settlement of this commune was known as Chassagne-le-Haut. However in 1879, in common with other villages in the Côte d'Or, the village was allowed to change its name replacing le Haut with name of their most famous Grand Cru Montrachet.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Of a golden yellow colour, this Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Blanc 2011 has complexity. Notes of almond and fresh apricot appear on the nose, accompanied by vanilla and butter aromas. These notes marry very-well and offer an ample and voluptuous wine. Notes of apricot can be smelt again, revealing sap aromas on the finish.
