Description

The grapes selected to produce this wine are located on the hill of Corton in south-easterly facing parcels. The vines are managed in the traditional way by the Louis Latour team which carries out strict pruning in order to produce later harvests thus insuring a good degree of maturity in the grapes. This wine is made up of grapes selected from several different parcels of vines in order to guarantee consistent quality each year. It has a good ageing potential.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE A wine with an impressive ruby red robe that presents a complex bouquet. It has sweet spice aromas including liquorice, vanilla and black cloves, this complemented with undertones of ripe prunes and leathery flavours. The impressive, lingering aftertaste reveals all the potential it holds for the future. To be enjoyed in five to fifteen years, or more... Tasted January 2007
- CELLARING POTENTIAL 10-15 years
- FOOD PAIRING Beef "Bourguignon" - wild boar - mature cheeses
- SERVING TEMPERATURE 16-17°
