Description

Located about ten kilometres from Dijon, Gevrey-Chambertin is one of the finest wine villages of the Côte de Nuits. In 1847 Only planted with Pinot Noir, Gevrey-Chambertin was the first village of the Côte d'Or to combine the village name with that of its best Grand Cru, hence Gevrey-en-Montagne became Gevrey-Chambertin. Les Cazetiers, recorded as Castiers in 1855, is located next to the Castle at the top of the hill allowing it to benefit from maximum exposure to the sun in the early hours of the day. The name Castiers means fortified place.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE This Gevrey-Chambertin is suave and intense at the same time with raspberry and cassis bud aromas. On the back-palate there are notes of liquorice which is proof of its aromatic complexity. This wine will be beautiful in a few more years.
- CELLARING POTENTIAL 7-10 years
- FOOD PAIRING Beef - venison stew - mature cheeses
- SERVING TEMPERATURE 15-17°
