Description

Situated half-way between Dijon and Beaune, Nuits-Saint-Georges gives its name to the Côte de Nuits. The vineyard of "Les Crots" looks due East and as it is at the top of an escarpment the vines are worked using a terrace system. The soil is shallow and stony. The wines of Nuits-Saint-Georges are well-known for being solid and age-worthy and "Les Crots" does not disappoint us in this respect: with a glistening deep red colour, powerful and complex aromas of small red and black fruits (cherry, blackcurrant) are revealed which evolve into more complex aromas of leather, truffle and spice with hints of liquorice and macerated fruit such as prunes. Whilst young the tannins give this wine backbone and body but during ageing, the tannins soften and the wine becomes smoother. A true delight!

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Our Nuits-Saint-Georges « Les Crots » 2010 offers an alluring intense rubis color. The nose reveals complex aromas of blackcurrant, liquorice and spices. On tasting, subtle undergrowth and mocha notes, laced to pleasant tannins, reveal a powerful wine. Definitely, a wine for laying down.
